To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of our client requesting a waiver of the reinstatement fee due to a medical hardship. The director of the corporation, Carl B. Stoffers has been hospitalized several times this past year with kidney stones and other associated medical problems. Therefore many of his financial affairs have been not been attended to while he has struggled to regain his health.

He is a small business operator and has had financial setbacks due to loss of productive time as well as additional expenses associated with his medical condition.

If you will examine the record you will find that he has paid his annual filing fees timely for the last ten years. He collects sales tax on business sales which he remits to the state in a timely fashion. In addition, he pays sales tax in the amount of $220 per month on a building that he owns and that is used by his corporation in order to comply with sales tax laws. While he does not agree with this taxing process he has none the less complied with the law.

In summary, Carl has always done his best to comply with and pay all of his financial obligations on time. We are therefore enclosing his check in the amount of $150 requesting that his corporation be reinstated.

Thanking you in advance for your beneficence in regard to this matter.

Sincerely,

Benjamin T. Maltby, CPA
