Dear Ms. Alan,

A quick look at me record with you will show that I always have paid my Filing Fee early and in more than enough time to avoid delays and penalties. When the new form arrived I was in Mexico and Munich and thought, from he telephone conversion with my wife, that it was merely a duplicate. Imagine my surprise on arriving home to see it was a new one asking for more money.

A look at my own records and copies revealed that I had completed my filing, made out a check #1270 for the $165.00 and mailed it to State on 4/27/97.

However it seems you could not have received this as it was not presented to my bank. However, I immediately mailed you a new Check (# 1288) to replace the one that seems to have been mislaid and a copy of my record showing my previous, and timely, payment.

I would ask that you agree that I had complied with the filing instructions in good faith, and accept the enclosed as a replacement unless a search of your records reveals the original filing.

Yours Sincerely

John S. Vaughan
