To Whom it May Concern:

On April 22, 1999, I mailed the application and payment for the Annual Report of the above mentioned company. Today I was shocked to receive an application for reinstatement. After calling your department, I found out that you received the application, but did not receive the check. Michelle. Milligan advised me to state in a letter the reason for the confusion and to enclose a check for $158.75, since I did not receive a letter advising me of the receipt of the report but not the payment. Ms. Mulligan also explained to me that with a copy of the original signed annual report and this payment, our corporation will be reinstated. Thank you very much for your understanding and prompt attention to this matter, I do appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Barbara M. Gallart
