To whom it may concern;

On July 1, 1998 I called you after receiving a "SECOND NOTICE" for our Annual Report for our corporation. I explained that I had not received the first notice and I was not aware it was due. The person I spoke to said to mail a letter explaining that and as long as the corporation does not have a history of being late I could mail you the initial $150.00. I did that then I received the letter enclosed dated July 15, 1998 as well as my check and the report. I called and spoke to one of your personnel at the (850) 487-6059 and they said I should have mailed it to PO Box 6327 instead of mailing back in your return envelope and they told me to mail it again.

I am still not aware of why I haven't received the first notice. The address you have listed for me is correct with the exception of the Unit # is N not U.. However this is a small plaza and we have been here a long time and still should have received even if the unit number was wrong! Please accept the letter as well as my check for the $150.00.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Deborah A. Gustin
