Dear Uniform Business Report Officer,

After speaking with Robert in your office today I am writeing this letter to explain why Scrim Jim, Inc.'s UBR was not filed on time, to apologize, and to ask that you be kind enough to waive the penalty fees.

Scrim Jim, Inc. is a very small entity with myself as it's sole officer. I have never been late in my fileing before and I'm very sorry for being late this time. The reason the UBR was not filed on time is because I had to leave town 6 months ago to tend to my mother who was very ill, and has since passed on. Before leaving I had requested that my accountant file my UBR along with my taxes but somehow there is no record of this request. I returned home to find my UBR had been neglected.

As I have had a very difficult year financally I am asking you to please remove my penalty fees. I will be happy to pay interest on the $150.00, and I promise this will never happen again. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Philip J. Nash
