To Whom It May Concern;

This letter is to advise you that on June 30, 1998 I spoke with Leslie in your Department and advised her that our previously issued check in the amount of $150.00 had never been cashed and was not returned. She at that time advised me to send you a letter explaining what had happened and replacement check. This I did and today received back my check along with our application. I again called your department and spoke with Leslis. She advised me to re-send this application and check along with this new letter. Please note that this is the third time we have issued a check and letter for our corporation and process this request promptly.
Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,
