IMPORTANT INFORMATION*ADMINISTRATIVE DISSOLUTION/REVOCATION VS. VOLUNTARY DISSOLUTION/WITHDRAWAL

If this corporation is no longer transacting business, it should consider filing articles of dissolution for a Florida corp. (607.1401 or 607.1403, F.S.) or a withdrawal application for a foreign corp. (607.1520, F.S.) The fee is $35.00.

A Florida corporation that is administratively dissolved for failure to file its uniform business report continues its corporate existence, but may not carry on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under 607.1405, F.S. and notify claimants under 607.1406, F.S. The authority of a foreign corporation ceases upon revocation of its certificate of authority for failure to file its uniform business report.

As always, the Division of Corporations recommends that competent legal counsel be consulted prior to making any decision affecting your corporate status.

For forms and information on filing articles of voluntary dissolution or a withdrawal application, please call (850) 487-6050.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Judges, or other individuals so authorized, who desire to exercise their confidentiality rights pursuant to Section 119.07(3)(i), Florida Statutes, when filing this document, should not provide any confidential information in this filing. There must, however, be an alternate address provided if the person eligible for the confidential exemption is to serve as the registered agent or an officer or director of the corporation, limited partnership or limited liability company for service of process reasons.

If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section and delivered to the Department of State within 30 days after the effective date of notice, it is deemed to be timely filed.
- (4) Each report shall be executed by the corporation by an officer or director or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee, and the signing thereof shall have the same legal effect as if made under oath, without the necessity of appending such oath thereto.

- (9) The department shall prescribe the forms on which to make the annual report called for in this section and may substitute the uniform business report, pursuant to s. 606.06, as a means of satisfying the requirement of this part.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

(1) What is the filing fee prior to September 13, 2000? $550.00

(2) What is the due date?

Uniform business reports are due between January 1 and May 1 of the year following incorporation and every year after. Reports filed after May 1 are subject to a $400.00 late fee. Sixty days notice of intent to administratively dissolve or revoke will be given to all corporations that have not filed the report. Corporations that have not filed after the sixty day notice has been given will be administratively dissolved or revoked. The Division makes every effort to mail to the last known address of the corporation a pre-printed prescribed form, and again the second notice form, advising of intent to administratively dissolve or revoke the corporation. It is the responsibility of the corporation to file the uniform business report on a timely basis; failure to receive the report is not an excuse for not filing. It is important that the corporation notify the Division of any address changes immediately.

(3) Do I receive any form of acknowledgement of the filing of the uniform business report?

The Division does not mail out any form of acknowledgement of the filing of the uniform business report unless a certificate of status is requested and paid for.

(4) What happens if I don't file the uniform business report?

Failure to file the uniform business report will result in the administrative dissolution or revocation of the corporation and it will no longer be recognized as an active corporation.

(5) My corporation is Sub-Chapter S, do I need to file a uniform business report?

Yes, the uniform business report fee is a filing fee, not a tax. The corporation must file a report to maintain an active corporate status.

(6) Does the Division assign FEI numbers or determine liability for intangible tax?

No, in both cases. FEI numbers are assigned by the Internal Revenue Service. For information, call (800) 829-1040. Intangible tax questions can be answered by the Florida Department of Revenue at (800) 352-3671 (Florida only). Out-of-state callers must call (850) 922-4826 or (850) 922-7200.

(7) What is a Registered Agent, and who can be the Registered Agent?

The Registered Agent is a person or entity that has agreed to accept service of process on behalf of the corporation. Any individual or entity, with the exception of the corporation itself, may be the registered agent as long as it has a Florida street address and has signed accepting the appointment of registered agent.
