Dear Sir or Madam,

This letter is in regards to a phone conversation today with Anthony C., in regards to my business corporation's annual report. After meeting with my attorney on Friday in regards to a business matter we pulled my corporation on-line and it stated that my corporation was dissolved and inactive.

This is incorrect. I had sent my annual report in in April of this year with a check in the amount of $150.00. First thing this morning I contacted my accounting and this check never cleared my bank.

As per our phone conversation and your instructions I have downloaded a copy of the (UBR) Form and sending it to you overnight with another check in the amount of $150.00.

I do hope that this does straighten out my Corporation and makes it active immediately.

I did have this happen once before, but this time I was not notified. Any further questions or information you may need please contact me at the numbers above.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Cyriacks
