Dear Sirs:

As explained by our accountant in his previous correspondence, our records do not indicate receiving the original Uniform Business Report.

Thank you again for your attention regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

2003 Uniform Business Report

Dear Sirs:

We are enclosing the captioned client's checks in the amount of $150 in payment of the 2003 Uniform Business Report. As explained below, they respectfully request your consideration in waiving the $400 late filing penalty.

The taxpayers just received the enclosed UBR's, which includes the $400 late filing fee. They did not receive the original report. The taxpayers have had a numerous amount of mail returned as undeliverable even though they have been at this address for many years. The post office has been notified of this problem on a number of occasions.

The corporate owners are very conscientious of their tax filing obligations, and would have contacted us and mailed these forms to us had they received them.

Once again, your consideration is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Jaime Maya
Certified Public Accountant
