Re: High Definition Mobile Systems, Inc. (HDMS, Inc.) Attention: Andy Dunlap

Dear Mr. Dunlap:

Iam sending you this communication pursuant to the situation with regard to the above captioned corporation in which I am a corporate officer, director, and registered agent. As previously discussed with one of your agents in early July, we did not receive the annual report or any other documentation for the renewal of the corporation. This may have happened due to the fact that my office is located in a building in which I am renting space, and the various receptionists who distribute my mail may have returned the documents. This in fact happened with your most recent communication as described by the enclosed envelope which I have enclosed for your review. I have previously told the receptionist that the High Definition Corporation address is the same as my legal address and to forward me any and all mail. I am unsure whether or not this happened or whether or not the Division of Corporations sent the communications to an inappropriate address. In any event, I did not receive the report.

This was completely explained to your representative and they suggested that I should just send a check for $150.00 in July, along with the report which they sent to my attention, and that they would reinstate the corporation. For some unknown reason after we were advised to do this, we have been sent the enclosed letter which was just now received returning our check with the explanation on the letter which I have enclosed for your attention also. Please advise at your earliest possible convenience if your division is honoring your prior representative's decision to waive any reinstatement fee due to this situation. It is important to keep this corporation active and current and I would like to have your reply as soon as possible.

Thanking you, I remain

Sincerely yours,

BRUCE A. HOCHSTETLER
