I am writing this letter under the advisement of one of your agents with whom I just had a phone conversation. I am President and Registered Agent of Carrollwood Office Systems, Inc.

I recieved your Certificate of Administrative Dissolution (document number p93000052823).

I request that you accept the original filing fee amount of $200.00 for the reason that we never did recieve a packet indicating time to file. Our company relocated its office one year ago, apparently without notifying your office of such change. The post office indicates that forwarding of mail is not a reliable method and that we should contact those parties which have not yet been notified or figured out what has happened to our location. I have filled in our new address on the form I did receive along with our remittance.

Sincerely,

Combon Classification
