STIPULATED PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION WITH ASSET FREEZE, APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER, AND OTHER EQUITABLE RELIEF

This cause having come to be heard on the motion of plaintiff Federal Trade Commission ("Commission"), for an injunction, and its ex parte Motion for Temporary Restraining Order with Asset Freeze, Appointment of Temporary Receiver, Order for Immediate Access, Expedited Discovery, and Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue. The TRO with Asset Freeze and Order to Show Cause having been granted ex parte on April 5, 1995, and having been served on all defendants along with the Complaint and Summons, and counsel for plaintiff Commission and defendants Chase McNulty Group, Inc., E. Lee Elliott, Anthony L. Rick, and Jeffrey D. Trotter ("Defendants") agreeing to the entry of a preliminary injunction with asset freeze and appointment of receiver, IT IS HEREBY AGREED AND

STIPULATED by and between plaintiff Commission and defendants, that:

1. The Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this case, and has jurisdiction of all the parties hereto;
2. This Order shall continue in effect until the Court orders otherwise, and the parties to the stipulation do not waive any rights they may have to seek a modification in whole or in part of the Order;
3. By entering into this stipulation, defendants do not admit that they have violated any law as alleged in plaintiff's complaint nor may this stipulation be used as evidence in any other proceeding that any law has been violated by any defendant; and
4. That no security is required of any agency of the United States for issuance of a preliminary injunction. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

I.

IT IS THEREFORE STIPULATED AND ORDERED that defendants, and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons or other entities in active concert or participation with them, are hereby restrained and enjoined from:

- (1) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, the amount of the total funds invested by consumers in defendants' interactive video and data service ("IVDS") offerings, partnerships, or business ventures that is used to pay necessary costs and expenses related to preparing and filing bids for and/or acquiring IVDS licenses;

- (2) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, the amount of the total funds invested by consumers in defendants' IVDS offerings, partnerships, or business ventures that is used to pay for defendants' telemarketing operation and any other business ventures owned or operated by defendants;
- (3) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, the profit potential and risk associated with an investment in defendants' IVDS offerings, partnerships, or business ventures;
- (4) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, that only the non-escrowed portion of the consumer's investment in defendants' partnerships is at risk, including but not limited to falsely representing, directly or by implication, that the only real risk involved with an investment in defendants' partnerships is the possibility that the partnerships will not receive an IVDS license at the FCC auction;
- (5) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, that investors will not need to provide significant additional funds to build-out the systems for the acquired IVDS licenses, including but not limited to falsely representing, directly or by implication, that any third party named by defendants actually has offered to finance most of the build-out for the IVDS partnerships or business ventures offered by defendants when in fact, the third party has not made such an offer;

- (6) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, that defendants' IVDS offerings, partnerships, or business ventures, through their IVDS licenses, will be able to offer interactive television services which are comparable or superior to those offered or to be offered by other providers of such services, including cable and telephone companies;
- (7) Falsely representing in any manner, directly or by implication, the actual, potential, or estimated value or profitability of an IVDS license or operable IVDS system;
- (8) Failing to disclose the actual cost of participating in the IVDS auctions, and that the actual cost of preparing the necessary documents is minimal; and
- (9) Failing to disclose the actual amount of the investors' funds used to pay for defendants' telemarketing operation, including among other things, defendants' profits, commissions to salespersons, and other overhead expenses for defendants' corporate and sales offices, including but not limited to:
 - (i) failing to disclose to Interactive Capital Group ("ICG") partners and prospective partners and

(ii) failing to disclose to ITG partners and prospective partners that the ITG escrow account as of April 6, 1995 was due $341,094.29 from Chase and that Chase had only $75,616.33 in its account on that date.

II.

IT IS FURTHER STIPULATED AND ORDERED that defendants, and their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and all other persons or other entities in active concert or participation with them, are hereby restrained and enjoined from:
