Dear Sir or Madam,

I recently received the 2001 Uniform Business Report, completed form which is enclosed. Upon checking with my accountant, he informed me that I should have received this form early in the year and that it should have been filed by May 1st, with a filing fee of $150.00.

Since I didn't receive the original form, he suggested I complete this one and mail it to you, with my check for $150.00, which is enclosed, along with this letter, explaining that I didn't receive the original form. Please accept this as my annual filing for 2001.

If you have questions, please contact me. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph E. Carlton, Jr.
President
