Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is in regards to the 2nd notice I have received for my 1999 Profit Corporation Annual report. The packet states the filing fee is now $550.00, this concerns me because I have never received the first notice. As soon as I received this packet I immediately contacted the 1-800 number located on the bottom of the page. I was transferred to the reinstatement department. I explained I am a small business and I never received the first notice, She in fact was extremely rude and commented "I cant help it if the mail did not get to you we sent them all out." Again I tried to explain the situation and if I would have received the first notice I would have sent it in because of the amount of late fee. She still had a disturbing attitude.

I would greatly appreciate your cooperation in this matter. I have enclosed a check for a $150.00 which was the price of the first notice I did not receive.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter please contact me at 941-575-9100.

Sincerely,
