Dear Sir/Madam:

Enclosed please find my application for reinstatement for my corporation: M-For-Sun, Inc. Doc #P93000064017 and a check in the amount of $315.00. (1997-$165 & 1998-$150)

I phoned the State of Florida to check on my corporation because the lottery department said that my corporation is no longer active; when we phoned you, you still showed our address to be 6710 Forest Hill Blvd instead of 6710 Georgia Avenue. In 1994 my accountants received the renewal (they were listed as registered agent) because it was returned undeliverable-you had mailed it to the 6710 Forest Hill Blvd. At that time I informed you of the address correction, as well as, changed the registered agent. From what I can tell, we received and paid for 1995 and 1996, but cannot understand why 1997 was never received.

When I phoned you the gentleman said for me to explain the situation and that you may be able to waive the penalty. Please accept my application for reinstatement. I appreciate your consideration. I understand now that I should be looking out for this report in January; in the past I just pay it as I receive it. We are a small family owned business, a little old fashioned in our business style. I will be looking out for the annual report from now on.

Thank you so very much for your consideration.

Mohammad Mirzaden, President
