To whom it may concern,

I am sending a Corporation Reinstatement form for the year 2000 and in November of last year I sent a blank form in to the Division for 2001. It seems that we have experienced the same problem that we had in 1999 when the registered agents address or the address that the State of Florida used to mail the yearly Corporate Report was not the correct one. At that time I was told by a Division reinstatement examiner to print in the correct address on the form and also attach a letter advising the same. By some inadvertent error the correct mailing address was never put into the State's database.

Once again I am asking that the Division Reinstatement Section please abate any penalties. I have enclosed a check for $300.00 to cover the normal two years application fees. If you could please see to it that the correct mailing address is entered into your database files this Problem should never have to occur again. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Sidney E. Rosenblum V. Pres.
