Re: Late filing

Dear Sirs

Last week I spoke to a lady in your department and explained to her that I had not received a renewal notice for my company. She checked the status and found that the report for this year had not yet been filed. I explained that my ex-partner and his family had been caught taking the money and now they were trying to make the company and me go away so they could keep the money. It is my belief that they intercepted the package and never sent it in.

As per that lady's instructions, enclosed is a copy of the last filing I sent in (1999) and a revised copy showing the changes that have been made for the year 2000. If any additional information is required, please contact me at the above address and phone numbers.

Thank you

Larry Rogers
