Re: Shelburne Financial Group, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern

I contacted your office yesterday, October 16, after calling my accountant and agent who advised to call the lady in your office to tell her that I had received my first notice of tax due on Friday October 10, 2003 many months after it was due. She had no reason to give me for the late delivery and was surprised to hear of my first notice arriving so far in arrears. Ater talking with her supervisor she told me to send my check immediately but not to send the front page of my packet as it said "first notice" on it and anyone opening the mail without an explanation would simply turn around and tell me to send a check for $700 plus my fee. She said I should send my check and this letter of explanation so the person would understand and accept my check as paid in full. (By the way, I have never received a second notice either)

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

President

P.S.

The notice over the years has been mailed to my agent but this time the notice was sent directly to me.
