To Whom it May Concern:

On July 21, 2003 we sent you a letter explaining that we never received the renewal paper for the corporation. In the phone conversation that I had with one of the secretaries, she instructed us to file the renewal with a letter of explanation, and to send a check for $150.00. We did so.

Last week I called again to find out why I didn't receive the new reinstatement paper for the corporation, and I was told by the secretary who works there, that my corporation has not been renewed. She told me that the letter we sent last year was detached from the check and they don't have any records of this particular letter, and during the same time you deposited the check and did not renew my corporation. I don't understand why would you take the money and not renew the corporation. I'm sending a new check for this years renewal attached with last years letter and this years letter. If you deposit this check it means you received both letters.

If you have any questions or if I can be in any assistance to you please call me at (954)962-6337

thank-you-again for looking into this matter

Sincerely,
Ron Klein, owner

PS: This corporation is over 15 years old, and has never missed a payment for renewal.

To Whom it May Concern:

I regret to inform you that I have just recently, within the last week, received my 2003 Uniform Business Report. Unfortunately, I also have not received the first application, and am now penalized with a fee much larger than I am accustomed to. Because I have always known that his Uniform Business Report is important to you, every year I have been consistent and punctual. I am sending you a check for the original fee of $150.00, please contact me if there is ever anything that I can help you with.

Sincerely,

Ron Klein, owner
