To Whom It May Concern:

I was told to write this letter to you and include it in my application for reinstatement for the year 2002.

Unfortunately, I was not aware that I had not sent in this form for the year 2002 along with my fee during the early months of the year. Obviously, I am self-employed and mainly tele-commute with my clients, I also lecture and that entails traveling.

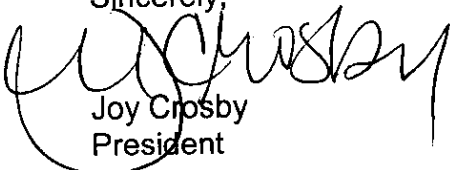

In October of last year, my elderly father required emergency brain surgery and was in the hospital and rehabilitation center for months. During this time, I lived with my mother (in DeBary) and spent the majority of my time at the hospital or helping my mother, along with commuting to my child's elementary school (in Sanford) and doing his homework. Needless to say, many things became second or third priority, and I found that the friends that were responsible for helping me with my mail did more harm than good, and several important documents were not given to me, or even received.

On two occasions, I received a notice from the post office to go get my mail and I received on each occasion a big clear box filled with mail. The post office does not like that to happen, I can tell you that. It was during this time that I am sure I missed your notice to pay the fee for the year 2002, and apologize for that. My car was also driven unregistered for several months, and that too has been rectified....

At any rate, I have full intentions of paying my corporate dues and have enclosed a check for $150 as when I spoke to the representative he told me to write the $150 check and this letter and include them together.

Please let me know what to do next; and thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Joy Crosby
President
