To Whom It May Concern:

I am sending our annual report for both of our corporations, along with a check in the amount of $300.00.

I would like to request that the penalty be waived for the following reasons. I am sole caretaker for my mother (89 years old) and also the only person working in this office doing all the bookkeeping for both corporations. I have been out of the office more than in over the past 4 months due to her hospitalization and illness. I thought I had given the reports to our accountant and had not. I just discovered them when I received the 2nd notice of non-filing. We have been filing on time for the past five years, since we became a corporation and will continue to do so in the future.

Your consideration is appreciated.

Sincerely,
CARMAL REFRIGERATED SERVICE, INC.
