To Whom It May Concern:

~~Enclosed along with this letter you will find my company's~~ application and check for $150.00.

We just received a "2nd notice" penalizing us with a tremendous late fee, but we never received the 1st notice! I called the number listed on the application and was instructed to write a letter explaining the situation. Also I was told that it is our responsibility to call if we don't receive the application by the beginning of February. With this in mind we will make it a point to mark our calendars to avoid late fees in the future. Please make an exception this time and waive our late fees.

Sincerely,

Jose Javier, Mendoza
