Dear Sirs,

I am sorry this payment is late. When I recieved the notice stating I was late with my payment I called the 800 telephone number and was told by a representative that I should have received a 1st notice. She told me to send the $145.00 payment along with this letter. She also stated that the notice was only a Courtesy and is not required. I was not aware of this. I have pasted the due date of this payment so that future payments will be on time and this will not happen again. I apologize for the delay of this payment and I appreciate your cooperation.

Sincerely,
John L. Troia
