RE: Florida Lighting Control & Automation, Inc.
EIN: 59-3223524
2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR)

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the accountants for the above captioned taxpayer. Mr. William C. Donati, the taxpayer's president, notified me today that the corporation had inadvertently failed to timely mail the Uniform Business Report (UBR). According to Mr. Donati, he executed the check and signed the UBR on April 27, 2001. He then gave it to one of his staff to mail. Mr. Donati discovered late yesterday that the employee inadvertently filed the UBR with other documents; accordingly, it wasn't timely mailed.

Based upon the following discussion, we believe the $400.00 additional fee (or penalty) should be abated.

Subsections 213.21(2)(a) and (3), F.S., authorizes the State of Florida to compromise a liability for tax, interest, or a penalty. In regard to the penalty, the taxpayer must show that the noncompliance was due to reasonable cause and not willful negligence. The taxpayer shall be required to set forth in a written statement the facts and circumstances which demonstrate the existence of reasonable cause.

The standard used in the determination of whether the noncompliance was due to reasonable cause is whether the taxpayer exercised ordinary care and prudence and was nevertheless unable to comply.

2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR)

Reliance upon another person to comply with the filing requirements, or obtain information, or to properly prepare returns or reports, is a basis for reasonable cause, depending upon the circumstances. Noncompliance due to nonperformance of a ministerial type function, inadvertent misplacements of returns, reports, or information, or the failure of the taxpayer's agent to properly prepare or file returns or reports are each a basis for reasonable cause when the taxpayer establishes the adequate procedures or steps for complying existed; or that extenuating or unusual circumstances prevented compliance.

Mr. Donati timely executed the UBR and the check and delivered it to an employee for mailing. The employee misplaced the form, therefore the report and the check we're timely filed. Based upon these facts, there was no willful neglect on the part of the taxpayer and the additional late filing fee should be abated.

We have enclosed with this letter the $150.00 payment of the annual fee. If you need additional information please call me at 727-796-4504.

We appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Herbert C. Long
