To Department of State:

I spoke with Andy Dunlap at your 850-487-6059 phone number and he told me to fill out the reinstatement form and send it in with a letter explaining why my 1998 fee was not paid. He also told me to send in the fees for 1998 & 1999.

When we started our business we hired an accountant his name was Sam Zeoli he handled everything for us since we were new business owners. Sam filled out our original corporation papers and when he did he put him self as registered agent and put his address on the corporation papers. Sam always took care of our renewals for us since the papers were always sent to his office. Sam has been retired now for a while and we hired a new accountant to handle our paper work. When the Dept. of State sent out my renewal form they sent it to Sam Zeoli's address and since he was retired the post office returned the renewal form back to your office. I did not know that the renewal fee was due I thought my new accountant took over everything for me but when I called my accountant he said that it is usually sent directly to me. Since Sam Zeoli put his address on our corporation papers I had no way of knowing you were trying to sent me a renewal form.

If you would please reinstate my corporation I would greatly appreciate it. I put my new address on the form so I will get all future renewals and they will be paid on time. If you have any questions please call me at the number above.

Sincerely,

Donna Ledford
