Gentlemen:

The above corporations received a second notice for payment of their annual filing fee.

The first notice was received in January 1999 and set aside for filing. The corporations changed accountants from Jordan C. Pappas, CPA to Vecchio, Badger and Co., Certified Public Accountants at the same time they received the annual report. The new accounting firm was not familiar with filing this report and did not realize that the fee was due until they received the second notice.

The corporation relied on the new accountants to file all necessary forms and due to the confusion of the transfer of the work between accounting firms the Profit Corporation Annual Report was not filed. This corporation has never been late in the past and will not be late in the future. Thus, I am asking that you consider the above explanation as just cause for the late filing and that you waive the late filing fee of $400.00 on each corporation.

I am enclosing a check for $150.00 for each corporation with our annual report. Please consider the filing fee paid in full.

I thank you for your consideration in this matter and will await your decision.

Very truly yours,

Thomas H. Sal
