To whom it may concern:

I'm sorry this wasn't filed on time. It was in my box with all my tax stuff for my accountant to file.

I then decided we needed an extension, so the 1st notice goes un-noticed, still sitting in that box.

It was my responsibility to file on time (as I have every other year since incorporation), but if a bill isn't in front of me I don't remember it.

I have 3 small kids 5, 3, 1 and my middle child is mentally retarded requiring lots of extra time and attention, so I forgot completely.

I can send $250 now and if you can bill me for the remainder or forgive some of it, I'd appreciate it.

Thank you for your consideration.
