Please accept my apology for failing to submit this form on a timely basis. I am in the middle of a divorce and apparently the original form was misplaced in the separation of personal property. My soon to be ex-wife handled all of those things and I have never actually seen the form before.

This does not relieve me of the responsibility, and I again apologize. I spoke with one of your representatives today and she mentioned that if I would submit the form immediately with this letter that maybe you would be so kind as to accept the original filing fee of $150.00. Our small company is barely making it and the $750.00 fee would just about finish it off.

Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Regards

James Saylor
