To Whom It May Concern:

On April 26th I mailed out a check for $150.00 and the original form to you. Today I received a new form along with a notification of a penalty. We have been experiencing mail fraud in our neighborhood and have come to realize that all documents that were mailed on this date, never were received. I have enclosed my original document along with the letter I get from our account. Please waive any late fees.

Thank you,

Bobbi-Sue Letso
