Dear Ms. Mustain:

Enclosed herein please find the resubmitted Amendment to Articles of Incorporation for Substance Abuse Management, Incorporated, together with the required Consent of the Registered Agent accepting the duties of such position. Please note that your letter dated June 18, 1996 indicated that the original check in the amount of $35.00 was enclosed with your correspondence; however, the check was not included in the documents and our records show that the check was cashed in June. Therefore, I am not including any further payment as the filing fee has already been paid.

Once filed, please indicate evidence of the same on the extra original and return the same to me using the enclosed envelope provided. I would also ask that you send me a Certificate of Status indicating the new name of the corporation once the Amendment is filed. I have enclosed a check in the amount of $8.75 to cover the fees in this regard.

Furthermore, it is my understanding that the annual report for this corporation has not been filed. This is to inform you that I have sent the completed report and applicable fees to the Annual Reports Section of the Department of State.

Very truly yours,

GODFREY & KAHN, S.C.
