To Whom it May Concern:

Enclosed you will find the 1998 Annual Report for Document Processing Management Services, Inc., and the filing fee of $150. I realize the report was not filed by the May deadline to pay the lower fee, as I never received the first notice. I called the Department of State when I received the second notice. That office recommended I write to inform you of the circumstances.

I relocated my residence to Tennessee in February but have maintained the post office box in Atlanta to which the second notice was mailed. That post office box is still used as my business address, and since I did receive the second notice I can only assume the first notice was lost in the mail system.

If you check my filing history, you will see that I have always paid by the deadline of the first notice. The only reason this is late is due to the first notice not being. I am asking you to accept this filing fee of $150 and waive the late fee. As a small business owner, the difference in the fees is quite a burden and I would not have paid late had the first notice been received. Please notify me of your decision. You may correspond with me at the address you have on file and is printed on this letterhead below.

Thank you,

Debra A. Ward
President
