14. The Bureau of the League of Nations, in its report to the Council of the League of Nations, dated 1920, stated that the League of Nations was established in 1919, and that its purpose was to maintain peace and security in the world. The League of Nations was established by the Treaty of Versailles, which was signed in 1919. The League of Nations was the first international organization to be established after World War I. It was created to prevent another world war from occurring. The League of Nations was the first international organization to be established after World War I.
