Reporting Department:

I wrote you last week after receiving a late notice about my annual report, which I filed on 1-2-97. The check with which I filed the report (#270) did not clear Sun Bank.

I telephone today to follow up on my letter and spoke with "Cheryl" who advised me to send this follow up letter with a check for the $165 and that I could safely assume the annual report was lost in the mail. I will also ask the Post Office to attempt to trace the former report.

You will find enclosed a Rich Enterprises International, Inc. check for $165.00 and a copy of my first annual report. All the data on the report are still correct.

I apologize for any inconvenience and next year I will watch for the canceled check to insure the report is received. Thank you for allowing my to process this without a late fee.

Respectfully,

Rich Wiederhold
