Re: Annual Report Filing - Homestate Funding, Inc. P94000020475

April 3, 1998

Dear Ms. Prather:

Thank you for your kind patience today on the telephone. As we discussed, my wife, Judith has become the new registered agent for the above-captioned company, and, I believed, had signed in the appropriate boxes. However, both our check and the rest of the paperwork was returned to us with a letter stating that the application lacked proper signatures.

As we discussed, perhaps the reason was that the examiner felt her signature was not "cursive, however, I can assure you, while her signature resembles "printing" it is her rightful signature. As you will note, she signed the enclosed check with identical signature; and I am also enclosing a copy of her driver's license for your perusal of her signature.

I am herein returning the entire package to you, including a copy of the letter from the Div. of Corps. to us, the actual Annual Report, and the check payable to Dept. of State for $150.00. Thank you again for your interest in straightening- out this matter for us. Should you require anything additional, please call me at (561) 487-1880 or (561) 457-4005.

Sincerely,

Stephen Weisberger
