TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN;

Please allow this letter to serve as a follow up to our conversation in March of 2000.

As discussed with your representative that day, and much to my surprise, I recently learned that my corporation had been dissolved since 1995. I found this out during a recent bank application process. Immediately upon learning of this situation I contacted your office in an effort to rectify this matter.

As for the discussed matter during the above phone call I had no idea that I was suppose to fill out any annual paperwork or documents with your office. However, since the filing of this, my first corporation, I have moved several times and I have never experienced difficulty with my mail getting to me. Please be advised that since 1995 I have never received any type of paperwork or notices from your office. Certainly had I received such documents I would have promptly executed same and sent them to you directly.

Also as discussed, I am than willing to pay the amount of 815.00 necessary to reinstate my corporate status. However, I do not believe it is fair to assess penalties me since I have never received any paperwork apprising me of any of the annual requirements and fees. In this regard, please find this my reason of waiver for your consideration and review. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or if you wish to discuss the matter any farther.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration and looking forward to a quick and adequate resolution to this matter.

Sincerely,

Bruce M. Zas
