To Whom It May Concern.

I Edward S Smith Jr am inclosing a photocopy of the cover sheet of the very large and very obvious envelope that all Corporation Registered Agents receive each year. The one enclosed is from the year 1999.

I Edward S Smith Jr did not receive "this" notification for the year 2000.

I have been waiting for it as I was expecting it sometime in the beginning of the year. When it did not arrive I assumed the Department Of State was handling the registration in an alternate manner.

As I am the Registered Agent for two Corporations, when I finally received these Envelopes, on vastly different days, I assumed this was the new time to receive them.

"Then" I noticed the wording Second Notice and much to my surprise I find the filing fee is now $550.00.

If you keep records of previous payments you will notice I have always paid the filing fee in a timely manner.

I understand my ignorance of the law is no excuse and of course you also had no idea the first packets were not received by me.

Needless to say I feel this is unfair as I never received the First Notices and I feel I have the right to Protest this charge.

The full payment of $550.00 is enclosed under protest.

I respectfully beg you to review this extreme charge.

I would appreciate anything you can possibly do to lower this charge as I feel I have done nothing wrong..

Respectfully

Edward S Smith Jr.
