To Whom It May Concern:

Recently after reviewing our files we discovered that we had not received our annual notice (first or second) for filing our corporation fees. On July 2, 1999 we spoke with Melissa who instructed us to write this letter. We have always paid our filing fees prior to the deadline on the first notice. We have had trouble in the past with our mail (children playing pranks) but nothing recently until we realized we hadn't gotten our notice. Melissa told us we should be getting a second notice in the mail this week, to date we have not received it.

We have enclosed our $150.00 filing fee along with a copy of last years report with the appropriate changes for 1999. We implore you to waive the $400.00 penalty and accept this filing. Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Cindy L. Hatfield
