June 30, 2000

To Whom It May Concern,

Last January my corporate offices were moved from 7523 SW 9th Street, North Lauderdale, FL to it's current address at 100 SW 28 St., Ft. Lauderdale, FL. While I was assured by the North Lauderdale Post Office satellite branch that my mail would be forwarded, this week I received a rather large package of delinquent mail. One piece of which was our 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR). As I'm sure you can understand, this came as quite a shock to me and has caused me a lot of problems, none of which can be blamed on any one individual.

After calling your offices I was instructed to write this letter to you explaining this situation. I do not believe I should be penalized an additional $400 for a mishap not of my control, and I hope you understand my situation. Included with this letter is my report, complete with my new address, and our filing fee of $150, as per the instructions by your phone operator. Please understand that it was never my intent to file this late or ignore you. In years past I have always filed on time.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and for your understanding in this matter. Personally, I don't understand how the Post Office can be so irresponsible, but that's another letter I need to write. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Sincerely,

Tom Martin
President, Martin Marine Enterprises, Inc.
