Dear Sir / Madam:

The Corporation has just received your Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation, together with a Certificate of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation that became effective Sept. 22, 2000. These documents have just now found their way to the PO Box as shown above yesterday Nov. 16, 2000. The Corporation has no information and no explanation as why these documents have just now been received at its PO Box.

The Corporation sold all of its business assets on Oct. 4, 1999, vacated its then physical premises with address at 1850 So. US #1, Ft. Pierce, FL and has been resolving its business affairs since that time from the home office of Bruce S. Blum. The Corporation utilizes the PO Box, as shown above, for all correspondence in the administration of its business affairs.

In addition, both of the officers have also have new and changed home addresses from those shown on your records.

The Corporation has no record of receiving the original form document concerning its year 2000 Annual Report. Thus the Corporation has not yet filed its year 2000 Annual Report. However, the Corporation states that this mistake and/or neglect was without any fraud intended.

The Corporation now encloses your form document Application for Reinstatement filled out with all of the new addresses so that you may update your files. The Corporation encloses the regular year 2000 Annual Report processing fee in the amount of $ 61.25.

The Corporation respectfully requests that your office, reinstate the Corporation in good standing and waive and/or abate the additional fees and penalties in consideration of the circumstances as described above.

Respectfully submitted,

Bruce S. Blum
V.P.
