Dear Sirs,

In the Fall of 1997, I changed and moved my business from a video store in Jacksonville to a Drycleaning Operation in Ormond Beach. As a result of the move, I never did receive the annual report you mailed me for 1998 or 1999. I also never received a second request for these annual reports or a notification from you that my company was dissolved.

I also was unaware that a corporation annual report had to be filed every year; my accountant always took care of all these matters as I don't have good command of the English language.

Please reactivate my company with the attached check.

Thank you.

for Paul Saroukhan /RH.
