Dear Sir:

When we received your Second Notice of the Uniform Business Report filing, we were astounded. After looking back over our records it was discovered that a check in the amount of $150.00 was payable to the Department of the State was mailed to your office on April 14, 2000. Our check has not cleared the bank as of this date. Do not know what could have happened. Am enclosing the carbon copy of the original check.

Would you please refer to your records and see if possible someone else has received credit for this filing or if the check has actually been misplaced? We would be happy to replace the check if it cannot be found. Would also appreciate you abating the penalty since we did file timely.

Sincerely,

Sheila Blackburn
