SUBJECT: LATE FILING

I am president of a very small corporation.

In November and December of last year we lost both of our outside sale people. I am including a copy of our financial statement to show you how our sales have fallen. We have never been a large corporation, but we have always paid our bills on time.

We do not have full time office personnel, nor do we have any one on payroll. We are doing every thing possible to keep the overhead low until we can find a good sales person. We are now working by voice-mail. I pastor a local church full time and take care of Florida Business Systems after hours.

We share this office complex with another corporation, our mail is sometimes mixed with theirs, but they have always brought our mail to us. I have no idea what happened to the "first notice to file." But, if you will check our past record of payment, you will find that we have always paid on time.

Please, please, ... consider dropping the $400.00 penalty. As you can see by the financial report, a loss like this would be disastrous. We are struggling just to make ends meet. We are now searching for sales personnel.

Sincerely,

Carl D. Shiver
President
