Re: Mr. Bill's International, Inc.

Dear Secretary of State:

The purpose of this letter is to reinstate the aforementioned corporation, without penalty, who was administratively dissolved. Enclosed is a check for $150.00 made out to the Secretary of State, which represents the 2003 annual fee.

For reasons unknown, this corporation never received their annual report form. The first notice that the corporation received regarding this annual filing came as a Notice of Administration Dissolution. I am requesting that the Secretary of State waive any and all penalties regarding the reinstatement fee.

Certainly, the corporation reasonably should have been able to assume that the registered agent would be notified in the event the Annual Report was returned to the Secretary of State's Office by the post office. Of course, the registered agent was not notified that the Annual Report was returned. Unfortunately, the corporation had no way of knowing this.

Should you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Charles D. Johnson
