Glenda Hood
Secretary of State

Dear Ms. Hood,

When I realized I had not received my annual reporting form for my corporation, I called to have a form sent to me. Apparently, the wrong one was sent, and I just automatically filled it out without noticing the error. Then I received the correct form and returned it with a check for the difference, as I was instructed to do by your office. They told me the penalty would be waived this one time.

I hope this explanation satisfies my debt. I have been diligent about this form for the last 15 or so years.

Thanks for your consideration,

Jerrold B. Resnick
