To Whom It May Concern:

In August we received 2003 Business Report forms for the three corporations that I handle for Sewell Hardware, however having filed these on April 18, 2003 I simply threw them away. It didn't occur to me that the 2003 corporation filing had not been received by you till our bookkeeper asked me about three outstanding checks from April.

Further research of the matter uncovered that these corporations had indeed not been renewed, in retrospect I should have contacted you when I first received the new forms to see if there was a problem. I asked your representative to look into our past record and I know that at least for the last fifteen years that I have worked here we have never missed a deadline so therefore I would please ask that you waive the late filing penalties.

I have stopped payment on the two original checks and cut new checks.

Your consideration regarding this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Beatrice Davin
Controller
