To Whom it may concern,

Attached is our 1997 Corporation fee form as well as our check for $165.00. We are sending only the original amount due because we never received an original form and billing at the appropriate time. Our physical address and mailing address changed in between filings and perhaps the forwarding time period expired before you mailed our original forms. We can only assume that is what happened at this point.

We made the address corrections as well as corrections to the addresses of the corporate officers and registered agent on the Application for Reinstatement form.

If the above is not satisfactory, please notify us so that we can discuss it further with you.
Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Kathleen D. Armstrong
Secretary and Treasurer
