To Whom it May Concern;

On April 3, 1998 I issued a Check #1962 for $150.00 along with my completed application to the Department of State. When I balanced my check book for the month of April, I noticed on my bank statement that Check #1962 had not cleared as yet. I called your offices on May 26th and spoke to someone named Sean (or Shawn). He informed me that there was a back log on receiving applications and payments but it did seem like a long time from the date I mailed it to the 26th of May. He advised me to wait a week or so and if the check still is not cashed, request a new application (which I did) and issue a new check (enclosed with this letter). At this point I am assuming the check and application were lost. I was also told to remind you to please waive the late fee due to the circumstances.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Shari Schary Taylor
