Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing you this letter in the hopes that my late filing fee may be waved. Late in 1996 I suffered a heart attack and have had two angioplasty procedures since. Because of the debilitating nature of heart disease and heart surgery I found myself unable to perform my office duties as I should and am just now catching up on paperwork. Also my company has suffered financially and I am unable to pay the new increased fine the state has imposed. If a waving of the fine is not possible, Perhaps a payment arrangement could be made.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

C. James Goodwin
President, FSS, Inc.
