11. The proposed change to the organization's name from "The Florida Foundation for the Advanced Study of the History, Art, and Culture of the State of Florida" to "The Florida Foundation for the Advancement of the State of Florida" is being proposed for the purpose of simplifying its respective title and better representing its focus on the State of Florida. Such change will be reviewed by the organization's board of directors. The history and the mission of the organization are not being changed. The proposed change will be implemented as soon as possible.
