To Whom It May Concern:

After a conversation with one of your agents we are sending 2002 Uniform Business Report and check #3243 for $150.00 for fees. We never received the original UBR form and just now realized the due day has passed. We understand our responsibility to send this report on time, but we think the problem occurred with the address. For this reason we downloaded the UBR form from your web site and filled it out manually. The Agent suggested to send this explanatory letter in order to waive the penalty according to our history records.

We would appreciate your comprehension with this situation.

Thank you,

Manuel Hiraldo
President
